

Travellers Provence and the Cote dAzur, 2nd (Travellers - Thomas Cook)

Travellers Provence includes a diverse range of areas to visit: rural Provence, such as Vaucluse, is an idyllic vision of sleepy farmhouses, sunflowers, lavender fields, vineyards and olive groves, whereas the coastal area is cosmopolitan, comprising glamorous resorts such as Cannes and Monaco and regions such as Var. The Alpine regions add to this mix, including Alpes-Maritimes and Alpes-de-Haute-Provence. Special features within the book include: a brief life history of Van Gogh, the Cannes Film Festival and facts on regional specialities such as lavender, olives, wines and spirits. Ten walks and tours offer the reader ideas on how to spend an hour or two or even a day exploring the sights and countryside of this beautiful area. Get to know Marseilles, Avignon, Monaco or Nimes on foot or drive around Mont Ventoux, the Carmargue or Grand Canon du Verdon.
