

This new paperback helps readers find a personal style, establish a realistic budget and work with colour. It covers many basics of decorating, such as finishing hardwood floors and choosing rugs; using slipcovers and pillows to liven up a room; and incorporating decorative details like wall sconces, ceramic vases, door hardware, candlesticks and picture frames. Sheila Bridges also offers advice on where to shop for quality pieces as well as how to work with design professionals to create the look you want.
