

VenicExposed

A unique nighttime vision of the Venetian lagoon, between a theatrical Venice and the cinematic Marghera, is the subject for this new collection from Luca Campigotto. The photographer juxtaposes the familiar images of a tourists Venice with a noirish perception of the Marghera zone, an industrial district of docks and commerce, rarely visited by outsiders. Campigotto is renowned in Italy for his landscape photography where he treats landscapes as if they were massive theatre sets. After a degree in history, Campigotto started his career as a photographer, dedicating himself to social photographic essays and to landscape photography. He has been exhibited in both Italy and abroad and his work is included in numerous private and public collections.
