

Worlds to Explore: Classic Tales of Travel and Adventure from National Geographic

Polar fleece, titanium, and GPS have forever changed the face of exploration. Today an explorer can make a phone call from the top of Mount Everest and geo-locate himself in the thickest rain forest or the widest desert. Yet despite these advances, few modern adventures get close to the charm and romance of The Desert Road to Turkestan, Mysterious Temples of the Jungle, and Airplanes Come to the Isles of Spice. In those bygone days, the pages of National Geographic were as close as most people could get to high adventure and faraway lands and here is a chance to recapture them. Alongside noteworthy names like Robert Peary, Amelia Earhart, and Teddy Roosevelt, other less famous travelers take us on long-forgotten trips to places few Americans had gone. We follow an American girl cycles across Transylvania, trek a thousand miles along the Great Wall of China, and glide by Felucca down the Nile. Introduced by brief essays that provide context and perspective, these engaging, engrossing selections speak for themselves and trace the National Geographic Society's growth as it explored the unknown and brought it to readers eager for knowledge of the world and all that is in it.
