

Become an Expatriate-Retire to Sonora, Mexico (Retire to: San Carlos, Puerto Penasco, Rocky Point, Kino Bay, Alamos): Become a Sonora Explorer

This is the new expanded version of this book. The size has almost doubled with the addition of a special Expatriate Essential Knowledge Base. This should be especially helpful to new retirees or to those considering retiring to Sonora or any location in Mexico. We are exploring different places to retire in Mexico. In this volume we visit the State of Sonora in the Northwestern part of the country. Sonora is the second largest state in Mexico. There are four major retirement areas in Sonora. They are, Kino Bay, San Carlos, Alamos and Puerto Penasco or Rocky Point. Each community has its own appeal. Fishing is a major attraction in all four areas with Alamos the only community on the Sea of Cortez. However, they do have fresh water fishing in a nearby river and its only 34 miles to the coast at Navojoa. These are all great retirement areas and they are all close to the US border. There are also large airports in or near all the communities. Retire! We would advise everyone to be a tourist first and maybe visit some of the communities. If you decide to move to an area, consider renting first. First be a Sonora Explorer and then become a Sonora resident
