

Carol Day - Mystery Man

This book presents Mystery Man, the thirty second story from the Carol Day comic strip by David Wright. It began on April 5 and concluded on July 2, 1966. It comprises strips #2967-3042. In this story, Carol and her friend Adam Boone (played by David Wright's friend and well-known comic strip artist Tony Weare), unravel the mystery of a skeleton discovered in a seaside cave. I believe this is the only Carol Day story by David Wright with supernatural elements. Carol Day is a classic comic strip by one of the greatest artists ever to work in the medium, but it has not been widely available since its initial newspaper publication. If you're not familiar with David Wright, click on Click to LOOK INSIDE to see an example of his work on this story. This presentation is scanned about half from original art and half from tearsheets. There is minor damage to a few of the dialog balloons in the original art scans, but the episodes are easily readable. The book is designed and optimized for the Kindle App on iPad. It is best viewed on the iPad or on a Mac or Windows PC via Amazon's Cloud reader, but it is certainly enjoyable on the Kindle.
