

Rhodes: An Ancient Medieval Modern Island of the Sun

Famous from the most ancient times Rhodes became a cultural point of reference. Homer extolled the prosperity of the Rhodians who ...enjoyed the smiles of Zeus the son of Cronos...who filled their treasuries with untold wealth. This book contains detailed maps as well as the various excursions available for the visitor. Much more than a travel guide the book covers the history of Rhodes-from ancient to medieval to modern times. Mythology and folklore as handed down through the generations is also revealed to the reader. Rhodes is a book that is a must for those who are planning a visit and a great read for the armchair traveler.
